OFFICIAL GUIDES

The New York Freedom Trail

The Revolutionary War and September 11th

This map is a companion to a step-by-step audio walking tour and National Park Service Ranger-guided tour about the indefatigable spirit of New York, as seen through the prism of the Revolutionary War and more recently the attack on 9/11. Centuries separate these assaults, but they share a common sequel: the city rebounded, emerging even stronger than before. The tour visits seven sites from The Battery where New York began to the World Trade Center site.

- 1 The Battery/Castle Clinton NM
Waterfront Promenade
- 2 Bowling Green Park
Across from Museum of the American Indian
- 3 Fraunces Tavern
Pearl & Broad Streets
- 4 Federal Hall NM
Wall & Nassau Streets
- 5 Trinity Church
Broadway & Wall Street
- 6 St. Paul's Chapel
Broadway & Fulton Street
- 7 World Trade Center
Fulton Street & Trinity Place
